

to hear him preach. Homer, I was glad to read that you are getting better. I have been sick the last two weeks but I am well now.

FREDDIE TETLOW.

MILLERSBURG, IA., Mch., 14, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—Our next subject for "Kings Children's" meeting is Grace. Emily Knipper is leader for the next meeting. I like to go and think we can learn a great deal in the Bible by attending. I will answer Edith Lichty's question. The word hip is found once in the Bible. How many times is the word "hoods" mentioned in the Bible?

EVA MILLER.

Grace, is a good subject to talk about for the Bible says: "By grace are ye saved." Tell us in your next what you learned about grace.

NORTH ENGLISH, IOWA. Mch. 18, 94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I like to read Bible stories. I will write one about Noah and his ark. God told Noah to build an ark. The people were so wicked that God wanted to destroy them. Noah was a just man. He had three sons—Shem, Ham, and Japheth. The ark was made out of gopher wood. It had rooms in.

(To be continued next month.)

Yours Truly.

ADA SANGER.

SPRINGDALE, WASH., Mch. 20, 94.

DEAR EDITOR:—We have about a foot of snow left although the hillsides are getting bare and the flowers will be out soon. About four weeks ago we took a trip to Monbovi, Wash., to visit my uncle. We had a very nice time. While we were down there they had a surprise party on my cousin; he was twenty-five years old. I will ask a question. How far was a Sabbath day's journey in Christ's time?

Your Sister,

ETTA V. JUDY.

A well written letter, Etta.

RED OAK, IA., Mch. 26th, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—As I did not see my first letter in print I thought I would write again. I go to the Baptist Sunday School. Sunday there were two hundred and eighty scholars. We have a Children's Junior Meeting every Sunday after-noon at four o'clock.

CLEMMEN HENRICKS.

We are glad to see you so patient and loving, Clemma, as not to be snarly because your letter did not appear at once. Read Romans, 2: 7 and see the reward of the patient.

NORTH GEORGETOWN, O. Feb. 28, '94.

DEAR EDITOR:—I have a mile and a half to walk to school. I am thirteen years old, and I belong to the Brethren church. Brother Kimmel is our pastor. I have three brothers, and one little sister five years old. We are going to have church next Sunday.

Yours Truly.

LIZZIE C. CONNELL.

The Lord says, "They that seek me early shall find me." Blessed be his name.

Stockport, Ind., March, 18, 1894.

Dear Editor:—I will not be disappointed if I do not see this in print. My last month's letter appeared in the paper for which you have my thanks. Bro. Summers filled his appointment last Sunday. We were all glad to hear him again. We went to Bro. Billy Switzer. Bro. Summers was there too, and you know things are always pleasant where the preacher is. His text was Psalm xxiii, 2, 3. The chapter begins with, "The Lord is my Shepherd I shall not want." I am as ever your friend,

Ivy Rensch.

Write again, Ivy.

Lattasburg, Ohio, March, 27, 1894.

Dear Editor:—One of my old school teachers was put into the ministry. His name is P. M. Swinehart. I'm so glad that little Homer is getting better. We are going to have a protracted meeting at Fair Haven in June. Jesse Calvert will preach.

I heard that they were having quite a revival at the College Chapel and I was glad to learn that among the number was my Uncle Reuben Rittenhouse and two of his children. May God bless the work at Ashland. Prof. C. L. Moore of Agorta, Ohio, had a singing class at Fair Haven for eleven nights and it ended with a concert. He is a good instructor and singer. We organized Sunday school at Fair Haven last Sunday. B. F. Swinehart, Supt; W. W. Gaurver, Ass't; Miss. Clara Miller, Sec.

Sunday school will commence April 1st. I hope to see more letters in the Children's columns from Fair Haven.

Willie C. Martin.

Yes, we have had a good meeting at the college and we trust the good work will continue. Pray for it.

WARSAW, IND., MARCH, 25, 1894.

MR. EDITOR:—I saw in the Evangelist the children's letters and like very much to read them. I am sixteen years old. I go to Sunday school every Sunday. There are seven in my class. Brother Perry is our minister. He preaches every two weeks. I am a cripple and my mother died when I was four years old. I have one sister and brother and three half-sisters, one half-brother. Brother Haskins held our protracted meeting here.

Your Friend,

Trella Collins.

Read your Bible much and especially that part which tells of Jesus' mission on earth and notice how he forgave the sins of the people and healed all manner of diseases—He is just the same today.

MYSTIC, IOWA, March 25, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—My papa takes the EVANGELIST and likes it very much. I do not have the chance to attend Sabbath school like other little girls I read of. But mamma says when school is out I can go to grandpa Zook's and then I can go to New Hope to Sunday school.

Inez Alice Huston.

This is a good letter Inez only it should have been written with pen and ink instead of lead pencil. We hope all our little folks will keep close to the rule. Those who learn to follow orders closely make the most progress in all matters. Those who follow the Bible most closely make the most progress in the divine life.

LIMESTONE HILL, W. VA. March, 22, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am glad to see so many little letters from the children. Meeting began at the United Brethren church last Thursday night. I was there Sunday and Sunday night. The texts were "and I sent a messenger unto them saying I am doing a great work so that I cannot come down."

"What must I do to be saved."

Viola Bond.

If you have not already obeyed the answer to that question we hope you will do so at once.

JONES MILLS, March, 25, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—I am nine years old. We organize our Sunday school next Sabbath.

I hope we will have a pretty day.

What is the fifth commandment?

Maud Miller.

Let the children answer all questions asked if the editor does not. We hope your Sabbath school will lead many to Christ the light of the world.

FALLS CITY, NEB., March 7, 1894.

DEAR EDITOR:—We just received the EVANGELIST and I read all the Children's letters.

You can see from the heading of this one where I live. Bro. Bunworth is our pastor. I send ten cents for Bro. Holsinger. The Brethren have no preaching in town. We have four miles to our church. We have no King's Children here. If they had I would be one of them. Our Sunday school lasts winter and summer. I have not attended regular this winter. Which is the longest verse in the Bible?

ADA A. JUDY.

By our mistake your letter was missed and is therefore late. We hope to soon get the children's letters in more promptly.

Reliance, Va., March, 27, '94.

Dear Editor—I saw my letter in print so will write again. We have not had preaching at this place since the fourth Sunday in January on account of the church being torn away. Mr. Copp is sick, but hope he will soon be better so he can fill his appointment at other places. You ask us to tell you what we would like to be when we become women. I want to be a good woman and do all the good I can. I have committed one-hundred verses in the Bible.

Clara Little.

North Georgetown, Ohio, March, 13, 1894.

Dear Editor—As I love to read the children's letters. I went to the Progressive Sunday school all winter. We have a very interesting Sunday school. My Papa and Mamma and brother Carl attends.

We have three churches in our town. Two Lutheran and one Progressive; the G. B's. have a Church one mile and a half out of town, one quarter of a mile from where we live. Enclosed you will find a dime for Bro. Holsinger.

Maud Whiteleather.

Glad to know you are willing to help along God's work by sending a dime for Brother Holsinger.
